

Virginia Swimming is Proud to Present
2008 Swimposium

NCAA Recruiting Seminar
Including local and regional NCAA coaches

Who: Virginia Swimming parents, swimmers and coaches.

Where: Koger Center. Richmond, VA

When: Saturday, October 4th @ 1PM

Cost: There is no cost to this event

Come and listen to local and regional NCAA head coaches talk about recruiting. There will be presentations on general ideas that all swimmers and parents should know when going through the recruiting process. Coaches will answer questions from the audience and specific questions from the host to help the athletes and their families become comfortable and educated about this process.

Topics will include:

- How can I become noticed?
- When am I allowed to talk to a coach?
- How and when can I sign a letter of intent?
- What is the coach not allowed to do when recruiting me?

Schools planning to attend:

Georgetown University	Marymount University
St. Mary's College of MD	Old Dominion University
Mary Washington University	Washington and Lee University
Radford University	Millersville University

Schools are subject to changed based on availability.

There is no fee for the event, but please register your family for numbers purposes. Please mail the registration to the provided address. Emailing the registration is also acceptable.

For questions, please contact Kevin Maloy at kmaloy1@verizon.net or 540-809-6486.

NCAA Recruiting Seminar

Sent to:
Kevin Maloy
P.O. Box 1264
King George, VA 22485
Or emailed to kmaloy1@verizon.net

Athlete: _____

Club: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Of Family Members attending: _____

Confirmation will be sent to provided email address upon receiving registration.