

Southwest Officials Clinics

Saturday November 5th, 2011

Lynchburg, Jamerson YMCA

Officiating clinics for Chief Judges, Starters, and Beginning Stroke & Turn

9:00 am – 10:30 am Chief Judge:

Chief Judge – orientation clinic for certified stroke/turn officials (at least a year) who want to become chief judges. Learn how to process DQs, mentor S/T judges, run officials briefings, championship meet protocol, and more! After you take this clinic you can begin your apprenticeship as a Chief Judge. Please send an email to davidbihl@yahoo.com to indicate your intentions to attend so that I may have enough handouts for the clinic.

10:30 am – 12:30 pm Starter:

Starter – orientation clinic for certified stroke/turn officials (at least a year) who want to become starters. Learn starting philosophy and protocol, timing systems, working with referees – everything you need to know to give swimmers their best possible start. After you take this clinic you can begin your apprenticeship as a Starter. Please send an email to davidbihl@yahoo.com to indicate your intentions to attend so that I may have enough handouts for the clinic.

1:00 pm – 4:00 pm Beginning Stroke & Turn:

Beginning Stroke & Turn – orientation clinic for new stroke / turn officials. Learn the basics of officiating, stroke mechanics, structure of Virginia Swimming, and more! After you take this clinic you can begin your apprenticeship as a stroke & turn official. Please send an email to davidbihl@yahoo.com to indicate your intentions to attend so that I may have enough handouts for the clinic.
